Ola Thomasson new Mill Director at Rottneros Mill

Rottneros has appointed Ola Thomasson as Mill Director at Rottneros Mill. Ola most recently comes from Valmet, where he has held the position as Director Global Site Operations Tissue. He will take office no later than January 1, 2020 and will be part of the Rottneros Group Management Team.

“I am very pleased to welcome Ola to the position as Mill Director of Rottneros Mill. His solid experience as a leader and strong career in the pulp and paper industry in various production positions are excellent qualifications to take Rottneros Mill to the next level”, says Lennart Eberleh, President and CEO Rottneros.

“I am extremely proud and very humble about being offered this role. Rottneros has a very long and interesting history. Thanks to all fantastic employees, Rottneros offers a wide range of products and a very close proximity to the market. It is all the talented people who make a difference every day. Together with the extensive investments made in recent years I see a great future for the mill, not the least as a very modern working place. I look forward to come on board as part of the team”, says Ola Thomasson.
